Indiana dioceses to resume public liturgies no later than May 30

EVANSVILLE, INDIANA – May 6, 2020 – The five Catholic dioceses of the Province of Indianapolis will begin resuming public liturgies (e.g. Mass and Sacraments) no later than 30 May 2020, the Vigil of Pentecost, with restrictions outlined by each diocese and provided to the parishes within their respective jurisdictions. The dispensation from the obligation to participate at Mass on Sundays is extended throughout the State of Indiana until at least 15 August 2020.

The Diocese of Evansville will announce its plans and schedule for the resumption of public liturgies on Thursday afternoon, May 7, 2020.
