

The MESSAGE

Southwestern Indiana's Catholic
Community Newspaper

November 1, 2024

Volume 55, Number 9

www.evdiomessage.org

New saint statues adorn Catholic Center campus

The Message photo by Megan Erbacher
Christ the King

By The Message Staff

Visitors to the Diocese of Evansville Catholic Center in Evansville will notice several new statues of Our Lord,

See STATUES, page 2

Annual White Mass recognizes healthcare professionals, caregivers

The Message photo by Megan Erbacher
Medical professionals gather in the chapel of Memorial Hospital and Healthcare Center in Jasper for the annual Diocese of Evansville White Mass, which is celebrated on or near the Oct. 18 Feast of St. Luke, patron of healthcare professionals.

By MEGAN ERBACHER
The Message editor

Memorial Hospital and Healthcare Center in Jasper hosted the 2024 Diocese of Evansville White Mass in their chapel Oct. 25 for healthcare professionals and caregivers.

Bishop Joseph M. Siegel celebrated this year's White Mass.

Concelebrants of the Mass included Father John Brosmer, pastor of St. Joseph Parish in Jasper and Dean of the East Deanery; Father Ron Kreilein, pastor of St. Bernard Parish in Rockport and St. Martin I Parish in

Chrisney; Father Jeffrey Read, pastor of Holy Family Parish in Jasper; and Father Simon Natha, pastor of St. Isidore the Farmer Parish in Celestine. Deacon Gary Keepes assisted, and Diocesan Director of Worship Matt

See MASS, page 7

Diocese celebrates completion of Sacred Heart convent renovation

The Message photo by John Rohlf
Bishop Joseph M. Siegel speaks to attendees during the celebration of the completion of the Sacred Heart convent renovation. The former convent will now serve as the House of Formation for first-year seminarians in the diocese.

By JOHN ROHLF
The Message assistant editor

The Diocese of Evansville celebrated the renovation of the former convent on the Sacred Heart property, which will now house first-year seminarians in the diocese.

Residents of the Diocese of Evansville's House of Formation and House of Discernment will both be housed on the Sacred Heart Campus, which is part of St. Boniface Parish and located along the 2700 block of West

See VOCATIONS, page 8

Vocations Appreciation Dinner

The Message photo by John Rohlf
The Knights of Columbus councils from Dubois and Spencer counties sponsored the annual priests, deacons and religious vocations appreciation dinner Oct. 29 at the Huntingburg Events Center. Daniel Schachle, pictured above, served as the special guest and keynote speaker for the event. The Message will provide full coverage of the event in the Nov. 8 issue.